Club Med Opio in Provence Marks Latest Phase of $530 Million Investment Plan Club Med's Upscale Family Resort on the French Côte d'Azur Opens June 1, 2007

Miami (March 15, 2007)—Set to open this June; Club Med Opio in Provence will emerge as the newest gem in the group's European portfolio. Boasting over $40 million in renovations, the new 124 acre resort faithfully embodies Club Med's ongoing commitment to the upscale family market.

In 2006 and 2007, Club Med and its partners dedicated a total of $530 million to renovate and revamp the group's portfolio of offerings. Already these investments are bearing fruit with the recent openings of Club Med Cancun Yucatan, Mexico; Club Med Caravelle, Guadeloupe; and now, Opio in Provence.

Upon arriving to Club Med Opio, visitors uncover the soul of the French Mediterranean. Perched on a characteristic Côte d'Azur bluff, Club Med Opio stands amidst pine, oak, heather and over 640 olive trees which produce a high quality olive oil. Walking and riding trails sprawl through the vast Opio forests, and one easily forgets that this provençal paradise is only 14 miles from busy Nice. Visitors may reach Grasse, the perfume capital of Europe in only five minutes and Cannes, home to the famous international film festival, in fifteen.

Novelties at the fully renovated resort include:

- Club Med Baby Welcome program with full amenities for infants
- Children's Clubs (ages 4 months to 17 years) and mini Club Med pool
- A children's restaurant exclusively for the Club Med Children's Programs
- A Club Med circus school for children
- A spa with 7 treatment rooms, hammam, sauna, and a private heated pool
- Two central swimming pools
- An onsite 9-hole golf course and 70 post driving range with classes for all levels
- 21 private golf courses in the area
- 13 tennis courts and tennis instruction
- 435 superior rooms, including 26 connecting, 10 handicapped and 4 suites
- 3 restaurants
- 4 bars
- An excursions center for visits to perfumeries, wineries, medieval villages
- Guided hikes

7-night all inclusive packages at Opio in Provence start at $1,068 per person, land only.
